

Montana's Brier 2026 – Draw, Live Stream, Teams, and Results

The 2026 Montana's Brier is set to be one of the most exciting national curling championships of the season, bringing together Canada's elite men's curling teams in a battle for the prestigious national title and a chance to represent Canada at the World Men's Curling Championship. Held annually by Curling Canada, the Brier is the pinnacle of Canadian men's curling and attracts intense competition and massive fan interest each year.

Click TV: Watch Live & On Demand

Below, we'll cover everything you need to know — from the Draw, teams, format, and results to how to watch the Montana's Brier 2026 live stream anywhere in the world.

What Is the Montana's Brier?

The Montana's Brier is the annual Canadian men's curling championship, featuring top curling teams from across Canada, including provincial and territorial champions as well as pre-qualified elite squads. The event dates back decades and has become one of the most historic and celebrated championships in Canadian sport.

In 2026, the championship will be held in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador, with games hosted at the iconic Mary Brown's Centre, a venue known for its enthusiastic fans and rich curling tradition.

Event Dates and Venue

- Dates: February 27 – March 8, 2026
- Location: Mary Brown's Centre, St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador

The 2026 edition is certain to attract thousands of fans in person and millions more watching from home or online, cementing its place as a must-watch curling event each year.

Teams Competing in the 2026 Brier

Eighteen teams will compete in the event, representing provinces, territories, and elite ranked squads from across Canada. The teams are a mix of provincial champions and pre-qualified elite teams based on Curling Canada's ranking system.

Pre-Qualified Elite Teams

Some of the top curling teams have already secured their spots through the Canadian Team Ranking System (CTRS) or by virtue of past success:

- Team Dunstone – Winnipeg, Manitoba
Skip: Matt Dunstone
- Team Gushue – St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador
Skip: Brad Gushue
- Team Jacobs – Calgary, Alberta
Skip: Brad Jacobs
- Team McEwen – Saskatoon, Saskatchewan
Skip: Mike McEwen

These teams are among Canada's most accomplished rinks — with multiple national titles and significant competitive histories — and they will be fan favorites throughout the event.

Provincial and Territorial Champions

The remaining entries will be filled by teams that win their respective provincial and territorial championships held earlier in the year. These qualifiers include champions from:

- British Columbia
- Alberta
- Manitoba
- Saskatchewan
- Ontario
- Quebec
- New Brunswick
- Nova Scotia
- Prince Edward Island
- Newfoundland and Labrador
- Northern Ontario
- Northwest Territories
- Yukon
- Nunavut

Each playdown is highly competitive, with teams battling for the honor of representing their region on the national stage.

2026 Brier Draw Schedule

The draw schedule outlines when each team plays and how the event's round robin and playoff rounds unfold. The Brier features multiple daily draws, giving fans plenty of curling action to enjoy.

Here's an overview of the draw schedule (all times local):

Round-Robin Phase

Friday, February 28

- Draw 1 — 6:30 PM: Opening matchups kick off the championship with several competitive matchups.

Saturday, March 1

- Draw 2 — 1:30 PM
- Draw 3 — 6:30 PM

Sunday, March 2

- Draw 4 — 8:30 AM
- Draw 5 — 1:30 PM
- Draw 6 — 6:30 PM

Monday, March 3

- Draw 7 — 8:30 AM
- Draw 8 — 1:30 PM

- Draw 9 — 6:30 PM

Tuesday, March 4

- Draw 10 — 8:30 AM
- Draw 11 — 1:30 PM
- Draw 12 — 6:30 PM

Wednesday, March 5

- Draw 13 — 8:30 AM
- Draw 14 — 1:30 PM
- Draw 15 — 6:30 PM

Thursday, March 6

- Draw 16 — 8:30 AM
- Draw 17 — 1:30 PM
- Draw 18 — 6:30 PM

Playoff Rounds

The playoff stage includes page qualifiers and finals:

Friday, March 7

- Page 1/2 Qualifier — 12:30 PM
- Page 3/4 Qualifier — 6:30 PM

Saturday, March 8

- Page 3/4 — 12:30 PM
- Page 1/2 — 6:30 PM

Sunday, March 9

- Semifinal — 11:00 AM
- Final — 5:00 PM

This structure ensures that the strongest teams from the round-robin advance into high-stakes elimination games and ultimately the championship final.

2026 Montana's Brier Live Stream and Broadcast Information

For curling fans around the world, live streaming and broadcast access are critical to keeping up with every game throughout the Brier.

Television Coverage

In Canada, the Montana's Brier is typically broadcast live on TSN (The Sports Network), offering play-by-play commentary, expert analysis, and featured game coverage. TSN's broadcast reaches millions of viewers and is the primary television home of competitive curling in Canada.

Live Streaming

While TSN broadcasts in Canada, global fans can usually stream the event through Curling Canada's official platforms, including live streaming on the Curling Canada website and associated apps. These streams often include real-time scores, multiple sheet camera angles, and sometimes on-demand replays for registered users.

How to Watch 2026 Montana's Brier Online:

Fans around the world will be able to follow the 2026 Montana's Brier through official digital coverage and authorized broadcast platforms. As one of Canada's premier curling events, the tournament receives extensive media attention, ensuring viewers have multiple legitimate ways to stay connected throughout the competition.

Official Broadcasters and Digital Coverage

In Canada, national sports broadcasters traditionally provide full coverage of the Montana's Brier, including key round-robin games, playoff matches, and the championship final. These broadcasters often offer online viewing access through their official websites and mobile apps, allowing fans to watch games live or follow scheduled replays using supported devices.

For viewers outside Canada, Curling Canada typically shares official viewing information closer to the event. This may include international broadcast partners or digital platforms that carry selected matches. Availability can vary by region, so fans are encouraged to check announcements from Curling Canada as the tournament approaches.

The 2026 Montana's Brier promises to deliver world-class curling, intense rivalries, and unforgettable moments. With elite teams, a full slate of competitive draws, and broad international viewership, it stands as a centerpiece of the curling season. Whether you're tuning in for the first draw or the championship final, this event is a must-watch for any curling enthusiast.